Accomplished in the meeting:
- Spent time working on the website, primarily with database integration, and any other features that aren't 100% complete.
- Decided how we will deliver our presentation and began work on the slides that display the project info, like tools used and how we would rate them.

Goals for next meeting:
- Have both the website and presentation complete enough that we can begin practicing the presentation.